Executive Proclamation
State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Royal Rangers are alert, clean, honest, courageous, loyal, courteous, obedient, and spiritual; and,

Whereas, Hunter Cutchin, a young man from Hot Springs, South Dakota, has been participating in Royal Rangers, earning many merit badges, has completed a community service project and skill awards in a myriad of areas; and,

Whereas, Hunter has been striving for the ultimate goal, to become a Royal Ranger, and achieved the status of Royal Ranger, and will be recognized for this as he is presented with the Gold Medal of Achievement, Gold Buffalo and Silver Buffalo award on September 14, 2003; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the major accomplishments in the lives of South Dakota's young people:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 14, 2003, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
